WILLIAM JOHNSON & SON.

Y. M. C. A. TO OPEN
NEXT FRIDAYFormal Dedication of Magnificent New Building on Evening of December 9, When Invitation to All is Extended.DESCRIPTION OF NEW BUILDING, ITS EQUIPMENT, AND WORK OF
THE ASSOCIATION—MEMBER-SHIPS AND ELIGIBLES THERE-FORThe Pensacola Young Men's Christian Association will be dedicated Friday evening December 8th, and will then be opened for active work.In the handsome building so generously provided by our citizens Pensacola will have one of the finest, best arranged Association buildings in the country. There is a splendid gymnasium fully equipped with the best apparatus, luxurious bath rooms, ample lockers and every convenience for the physical department.The educational department has ample space and good equipment. The reading room is a memorial to the late Wm. Johnson, is large, light and beautifully furnished and will be provided with the best periodicals and papers.The cafe is a gem; the social room with its big open fireplace is cosy and comfortable and the game room is one of the best in the building.On the top floor are eighteen rooms used as bachelors quarters—nearly all now occupied. The boys have separate quarters for their own use and there are lockers and baths for business men.J. H. Sherrill, who has been in Pensacola some time will be in charge of the Association as its general secretary. Mr. Thos. M. Brainard will be in charge of the boys' department and Mr. F. B. Magee, formerly of Charleston, S. C., will be the physical director.The building will be open Friday afternoon for inspection and some of the young men will be in attendance to show visitors through and to explain the various departments.The formal exercises will take place Friday evening and every one is invited both in the afternoon and to the dedication. The program will be announced later.Application for membership will be received Friday night and at any time thereafter. No special invitation is necessary as any young man of good moral character will be gladly received.Since the Pensacola Young Men's Christian Association will so soon open its building, The Journal requested a short account of the history, objects, methods and membership qualifications of this organization for the benefit of those interested in the Association.In compliance with this request the following statement was furnished by the secretary of the Association:In 1884 George Williams, a young dry goods salesman called a meeting of the Christian young men employed in the same trade and at this meetingwas organized the first Young Men's Christian Association. For a time the agencies employed were purely evangelistic and the conversion of young men together with their growth in Christian character, were the only things the society sought to accomplish and prayer meetings, Bible classes, etc., were the only agencies of the society.Gradually other activities were added. The library was followed by social attractions, then came the gymnasium and as these different departments grew the Association began to realize that a man cannot be divided into many different compartments; that no side of a man's nature can be neglected without injuring his true manliness, and the Association has since broadened its activities to meet the needs of every side of a man's nature, yet its ultimate aim has always been the evangelization and Christian culture of young men.The gymnasium is used to give the men a more perfect body and to increase the manliness of the Christianity taught in the Bible classes; the educational department to fit him for taking his place as a bread winner and to increase his intelligence in the use of faculties developed; the social activities to make him companionable and to give him those charms and graces that make a man's character congenial. And while these various activities are worked into a symmetrical whole every member is entirely free to select for himself the privileges he wishes to enjoy.The membership is divided into two classes: "Active" and "Associate." Any man of good moral character who is a member of any evangelical church and who desires to perform the duties that may be assigned to him on committees in all of the departments of Association work is eligible to "Active Membership." Any man of good moral character (without reference to church connections) may become an "Associate Member." The privileges of these two classes are identical except that active members only vote and are eligible for service as directors and trustees.This distinction is obviously necessary because the Association is a who are in sympathy with its main object would care to be responsible for the more distinctively religious features of the Association and does not in any way prevent the associate member serving on committees and performing various important duties in connection with those actual workings of the Association, which may accord with their tastes.Some join the Association because of the opportunity it gives for service and some join for the benefit they can personally derive from some particular feature of the Association. The Pensacola Y. M. C. A. will be glad to have either kind.The membership fee is ten dollars a year for men and five dollars a year for boys. There is no initiation fee and no assessments or dues other than the regular membership fee.

An Old English Law.

An act of parliament, passed in the reign of George III. and which is still in force, exempts members of the yeomanry from the ballot for the militia, allows them to ride through a toll bar when in uniform without paying and also relieves them from the tax on powder for the hair. Such privileges were highly valued in 1804, when the act was passed; but, as yeomen are not now liable for the militia ballot, as toll bars have been abolished and as hair powder is no longer in request, these favors have ceased to have any practical value. Nevertheless, they still exist.—London Mail.

A Humble Archbishop.

Willegis, a famous archbishop of Meutz, rose to that elevated position from the very lowest ranks. He was the son of a poor carter, but was never ashamed of his parentage. He not only acquired the following inscription to be placed conspicuously in his palace, "Willegis, remember thy parentage," but had the wheels of a cart hung up in the Cathedral of Meutz. From that time to this the arms of the see have borne the figure of a cart wheel.

The Word "Covey."

Long custom has practically limited the word "covey" to association with the partridge, although it has always been used with grouse and ptarmigan.
Reaumont and Fletcher, however, spoke of a "covey of fiddlers" and Thackeray of a "covey of trumps." The word means properly a brood, hatching, coming through the French "couvrir," to sit (of a hen bird), from the Latin "cu-bare," to recline, whence "incubate," also sprung.

NOW ESTABLISHEDJ. T. Davis, who for the past few years, was the watchmaker at the Jewelry store of the late J. L.
Stephens, has branched out on his own hook, and will begin business today at Coe's bookstore, with a line of jewelry, watches, painted china, umbrellas, and everything else usually kept in a first-class jewelry store. Of course, a great deal larger stock has been ordered, which will arrive nearly every day until after the holidays.Mr. Davis is an expert workman, and from time to time has been connected with some of the leading jewelers in the larger cities. He has established an enviable reputation in Pensacola as a buyer, repairer and engraver, and he will be pleased to have the public inspect his stock and to give him a trial at watchfixing.CONDUCTOR WASHAM AND BRIDE ARRIVE HEREConductor Walter Washam, of Corbin, Ky., who is in the service of the Louisville and Nashville, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by his handsome bride, whom he wedded in Louisville a few days since, having eloped from Corbin.The newly wedded couple reached here yesterday afternoon, and having been advised of their coming a number of local railroad boys were at the depot to meet them and welcome them to Pensacola. Mr. Washam is a member of the general committee of the

AN AGED PHYSICIAN

After Years of Experience Gives the Following Advice."If you have anything to do with medicines of all be pretty sure you know what you are taking."Our local druggists, W. H. White & Co., say this is strong point of their valuable cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. Everything it contains is plainly printed on the bottle, therefore it is not a patent medicine.
Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil or grease to nauseate and upset the stomach.This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and lung troubles, and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run down, overworked, tired and debilitated, or give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, as Vinol.Mrs. Martha Fraser of Portland, Me., writes: "I was all run down from overwork and had a chronic cough for years. I had tried so many remedies without help that I had lost all faith in medicine. My daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol. It simply worked wonders for me; it cured my cough and brought back health and strength and I am better than I have been for years."We can only ask every one in Pensacola who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails." W. H. White & Co., druggists.

Sturdy Children is by Intelligent FeedingAn Iowa mother tells of the naturally correct instinct of her 5-year-old boy. She says he thinks there is nothing equal to Grape-Nuts for breakfast."When he was a little baby he was puny and pale, and to find the right food to properly nourish him was a difficult problem. When he got to be about 12 months old we commenced using Grape-Nuts food in our family and I began feeding him a little boile-denned moistened with milk. We all liked Grape-Nuts, but he liked it especially well.""It agreed with him. He began to grow plump and rosy, and for years he has scarcely eaten a breakfast without a dish of Grape-Nuts, and he usually eats nothing else. He wants it and will take no substitute. He has never been sick and today is a remarkably robust child with a fine muscular development, and a quick, active brain—by far the healthiest and strongest, even if he is the youngest, of my five children.""All this I attribute to his regular use of Grape Nuts food." Name given
